1. My mother's husband was a priest named Zechariah, and both my parents were upright in the sight of God. An angel told them that my mother would have a son. Though my name is very common, I like it a lot, but please don't call me John-John. Can you guess my mother's name?

2. Hi, before I was born, a woman named Peninnah made fun of my mother because she didn't have any kids. She was so heartbroken that she prayed to God that if she would ever have a son, she would dedicate him to the service to the Lord. Well, here I am, because of my mother's faith, I was born. I am now working as a priest at the temple all my life, and I love it! Can you guess my mother's name?

3. My mother and father didn't meet the old-fashioned way. You know, boy meets girl, dated, and got married. Actually, my granddaddy's servant spotted my mom. When the servant took her back to where my dad was, my dad liked her and married her. Also, my mother gave birth to my twin brother and me. Can you guess my mother's name?

4. Hi, I want you to meet my mother. She is very pretty, and an Egyptian pharaoh thinks she is beautiful too. She had me when she was very old, actually she laughed when she found out that she was going to be pregnant with me. Can you guess my mother's name?

5. Hi, my mother met my father after a deep sleep, and he gave her a name. My mother likes eating fruits and vegetables too. One day, she ate a fruit from a tree that didn't belong to her, so she got into a lot of trouble. Can you guess my mother's name?
